

Crash! I got off my exercise bike and felt a strange tingling in my right shoulder, arm, and leg. "This isn't normal," I thought. "I'd better sit down." I swiveled my body to sit in the chair, but my right leg didn't respond and I crashed to the floor. I had a stroke. Thanks to East Holmes EMS and JPMH for their fast, professional response. And thanks also to our community; the support is incredible! I got lots of texts telling me they're praying for me. And one text for a multi-level-marketing product that would do wonders. I'll pass on that, but will take all the prayers! God's got this; I'm ecstatic about the healing I'm experiencing.
