The tranquility our ferns provide to any room, porch, or deck in your home is unequalled. Soft and feathery, majestic without being a show-off—a fern is never out of place. Well, they were in the wrong place when Hurricane Irma hit Florida last year. The hurricane destroyed our supplier's greenhouses and we feared a fern-less spring. However, quick effort kept our supply secure—and we breathed a sigh of relief. Speaking of breathing, hang a fern in your laundry room. Every load of laundry releases a half gallon of moisture into the air, which we inhale. If you use fabric softener, you are inhaling chemicals, including formaldehyde. Let our ferns do that for you. Breathe easy!
