Dark and freezing cold — it's coming! In a survey, folks in Denmark ranked their nation as the happiest in the world, even as they battle adverse weather. Miserable weather doesn't produce miserable people. We choose misery. The Danes choose comfort-- stocking wood for the fireplace, hot cocoa, and warm wooly socks. And candles. Danes use 13 pounds of candlewax per person annually! Danes find solitary behavior achieves little satisfaction. Something as simple as cooking together lifts the spirits. Cooking involves all five senses, and when done with others, amplifies our senses. Aromas, colors, tastes, sizzle, combine in making a great-tasting meal, that feels good — and is for the good of all. That's comfort, and that's comfort food!
